JOHN A. McCLERNAND, of Gallatin County.
JAMES H. RALSTON, of Adams County.

☞ We are authorized to announce Col. E. D. TAYLOR, a candidate for the Senate, to represent Sangamon, McLean and Logan counties, in the next General Assembly.

[CONGRATULATORY.]

Messrs Ewing & Bosley Executors, Esq. of Island Grove, a useful increase to a valuable list. Begin subscriber to the General Assembly, it will afford pleasure to the Democracy of Sangamon. It would be to him

MARY VOTORS.

☞ We are authorized to announce MILTON CARPENTER as a candidate for re-election, to represent Hamilton county in the next General Assembly.

We are authorized to state that Richard Brooks, Esq. of Jacksonville, is a candidate to represent Duval county in the next Legislature.

NEW JERSEY CASE DECIDED.

We learn from Washington that the committee on Elections in the House of Representatives, Contestee Election, that the democratic members have a majority of the votes of the committee and are entitled to their seats as members of the House of Representatives.

So ends this memorable attempt of Federalism to defraud the People of New Jersey out of their rights and privileges. The committee, consisting of a majority of Whigs, have reported that the sitting members are entitled to their seats.

Thus, have the People and correct Precedents triumphed over the fraudulent and false machinations of Live Institutions, Liberty and Law. We are a merry people, those of the Whigs, this is glory enough for one day.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS.

We have received the proceedings of the Democratic Convention of Cook County, Illinois, which some of them compels us to defer until our next.

The Pike County convention has held on the 16th inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates, and Messrs Brown, Lemmon, Anderson, and Alexander Brown, for county commissioners, and Messrs Augustus Wheeler, candidates for Representative in the Legislature. Messrs Wheeler, Worthington, Brown, Lemmon, Anderson, and Brown, are strong democratic men, and we have no doubt, that each county in the district, is more or less democratic.

BOONE COUNTY.

The Democratic Convention in Boone county held on the 14th inst. John Marsh, Esq. was chairman, and Geo. T. Young, Esq. was appointed secretary. HARVEY HASTINGS, Esq. was nominated as the Democratic candidate for Representative. He has been one the foremost in firing, unceasing Democratic principles, and is a sound democratic statesman. The resolutions are also addressed by Messrs. Price, Bradshaw, Vanderveer, and Lamont. God speed the democracy of Boone.

FULTON COUNTY.

We perceive by the Democrat published, that our old friends in Vandalia have held a precious meeting, preliminary to the holding of a county convention on the 25th April. We are glad to see so real division among the Democracy of that section in the Sangamon district. With union and harmony, there can be no doubt of success against the bigoted Democratic majority of that county, and we hope to see a full delegation there. The only news to speak of is, that both parties have begun to count on Democracy—men who vote from principle.

Will M. DAVIS, Editor of the Peoria Register, Sir, under the following Agency!

Did you, in November 1837, during the Congressional Convention at Peoria, as a correspondent with the Peoria Register, publish a letter addressed to to your publisher, say, that you were acting, but that you were not acting for the Democratic party? Did you say that you were acting for General Harrison, as the friends of Harrison's incompetency, and that to the end of the campaign you would continue to do so?

CHICAGO DEMOCRAT.

Our readers will notice that Mr. Wentworth, the editor of the Democrat, has made arrangements to furnish that paper to subscribers for $1, up to the 1st Monday of November next. The Democrat is the only one of the four democratic papers in the State, and no man will begrudge the dollar it asks.

IMPORTED STOCK.

We last week called the attention of our readers to the importation of Mr. Dorsey's imported horse Comet. We learn that he travelled and pure-blooded mustang, while on New Orleans, on the 4th of January last, was purchased by Gen Jackson, who was then on his way, attended by a numerous company, to the city of January. It is well known that Gen. Jackson is an enquisite judge of a horse, and he pronounced Comet one of the best and purest horses he has ever seen. Mr. Oakley has imported, with Comet, several other excellent specimens of the English stock. One filly, bred by the late King of England, of the purest racing blood in that country. Also, two fine Durham cows, and a bull, besides a fine pure Durham stag.

This is the first stock that has ever been imported direct to this State. We hope, in a few years, Illinois may compete even with Kentucky in the stock.

GEN. HARRISON'S ATTEMPT TO RAISE MR. JACKSON A BOUGHBER, BY CONSTRUCTION.

We copy to another column from the Globe, an article which sets forth the conduct of Gen Harrison in Congress at the time the Federal party, headed by Harrison, embarked in the wrong the reputation of Gen. Jackson for his victory at Pensacola, and for hanging Arbuthnot and Ambrister.

It appears, by the Journals of Congress, that Gen. Harrison, as the leader of the Federal party, moved the following resolution:

"Resolved, That a select committee be raised to make into the expediency or practicability of the purchase of Pensacola, or of the territory which may be east and west in the vicinity of the United States, and that the committee have power to send for persons and papers and for its existing limits."

Thus "Old Hickory" was to be tried before Congress, and a Spanish town, walled that country, and all to please Mr. Clay, who had not long disbanded and dissolved, Hartford Convention, but had intelligence from Europe, and unwise disbursements Amercan citizens. For the lookand rainbow sets, Gen. Jackson encamped in Spanish territory, and marched through a line a sea Gen. HARRISON, then a member of Congress.

Those different modes of darkeys by the chieftains of Gen. Jackson were brought forward, and the FATE OF WHICH GEN. JACKSON VOTED. Our next resolution that the volume of the Journal of Congress for further enquiry, and the Globe. Another contained the proceedings of the case of Arbuthnot and Ambrister, another on the resolution which Gen. Harrison introduced, and to punish CRIMES committed by persons in the service of the United States, and the resolutions Gen. Jackson J. MURDERUS BY CONSTRUCTION.

The Johnsons attempt by Gen. Harrison and the Federalists to destroy the reputation of the Hero of New Orleans, and to destroy the character of the Hero of New Orleans, and to destroy the character of the Hero of New Orleans, and to destroy the character
